Please note:

- a) Representative hockey is not equal ice time. It is a fair share of ice time taking all circumstances into consideration;
- b) If the amount of ice time given to a player becomes such that it is detrimental to the development of his hockey skills, the Rep Convenor may intervene and, in consultation with the Coach, relocate a player to a lower league;
- b) Early season play is for the development of all players;
- c) Towards the end of the season and during playoffs, all players earn their amount of playing time.
